

Walk in My Shoes

Have group sit in circle, take off one shoe and place it in the center. One by one, students take back their shoe and introduce themselves by explaining what that shoe has seen; where it was bought, what it did last quarter, etc. If you feel that students might be nervous about foot odor, they can just put their foot (with the shoe on) in to the center and talk about it.